

Having trouble? View as a web page »

National Archives Public Programs April 3

The Inside View: White House Chiefs of Staff

Wednesday, April 3, at 7 p.m.
William G. McGowan Theater

Five former White House Chiefs of Staff representing four different Presidents discuss their jobs, lessons learned, and personal recollections of managing the White House, as well as how the Executive Office of the President has evolved over the last four decades.

David Gergen, former Presidential advisor and Director of the Center for Public Leadership, moderates panelists Donald Rumsfeld, Kenneth M Duberstein, Thomas F. "Mack" McLarty, John Podesta, and Joshua Bolten. Presented in partnership with the Aspen Institute. Seating is limited and on a first-come, first-served basis.

Pictured: Donald Rumsfeld

For all Public Programs, (unless otherwise noted) please use the Special Events Entrance on the corner of 7th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW. Doors to the building open 30 minutes prior to the start of the program. Late seating will not be permitted 20 minutes after programs begin.

All events listed in the calendar are free unless otherwise noted. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

The National Archives is fully accessible. If you need to request an accommodation (for example, a sign language interpreter) for a public program, please e-mail or call 202-357-5000 at least two weeks prior to the event to ensure proper arrangements are secured. All building entrances are handicapped-accessible.

Books are available for purchase before or during book-related programs at a 15% discount. To purchase books before an event, please call 202-357-5271.

The National Archives Experience
700 Pennsylvania Ave. NW
Washington D.C. 20408

View the Washington, DC Events Calendar Online »

UNSUBSCRIBE

SEND TO A FRIEND

TERMS

PRIVACY POLICY

To send this email to a friend, click here.