

Interns Wanted—Spring 2008

Congressman Dana Rohrabacher (R-CA) is currently seeking interns for his Washington, D.C. office for the upcoming semester and spring quarter. We are looking to begin filling positions as early as March 1st, 2008. Interns will be expected to distribute mail, answer phones, conduct Capitol tours, correspond with constituents, and other duties as assigned. All interns should be highly motivated and eager to learn.

Positions are available for both part-time and full-time interns. All applicants must be undergraduate students of an accredited college or university. While preference will be given to residents of CA and California's 46th district, others are encouraged to apply. To apply, please send your cover letter and resume to Justin.Ahn@mail.house.gov.
