

NATIONAL STRATEGIES, INC.

INTERNSHIP

ANNOUNCEMENT

Internship Opportunities - Intern Program Overview

Received: 10/3/2007

NSI, a Washington, D.C. based Government and business consulting firm, assists companies devise and execute sales and marketing strategies to successfully sell their products and services to the U.S Government market. Our team of bi-partisan business and Government professionals and consultants help our clients understand and navigate through the complex Government procurement process, as well as solve any resulting business issues which may stem from working with and selling to the Government marketplace.

NSI, during our near decade of existence, has worked with a wide variety of domestic and international companies to either expand their existing presence in the Public Sector or to begin their penetration into this very complex and political market. Our clients range in size from Fortune 500 companies to medium and start-up organizations across virtually all different industry segments, including technology, education, healthcare, infrastructure, transportation, security, energy and financial services.

Objective: Our intern program provides students with experience and exposure to the many facets of government relations. The assistance of our interns in a variety of areas provides valuable research and information for services to our clients and related operations of our firm.

Requirements: We look for energetic, motivated individuals with a good school record and a demonstrated interest in learning about governmental relations. The program is open to both undergraduate and graduate students. Recent graduates are considered as well.

Availability: Full time and part time, semester and summer positions. Start and finish dates vary with intern schedule. Contact: Please submit a resume and letter of intent indicating your interest, available hours and semester. Please note that we will contact you to discuss a possible internship should your qualifications match what we are seeking.

To apply please send or email your resume and cover letter to:
